Short story

KIM TREACY, 45, from Berkshire, is a professional nail technician with both private and media clients, and has three children, ranging in age from 12 to 20.

HER LOOK A touch boho – off-beat bargains gleaned from charity shops, retro markets and favourite fashion mecca Topshop.

HER BUDGET See it, like it, buy it is her mantra at charity shops when she spies a steal! She shops, swaps and shares with her daughters, and is ruthless about searching out a good deal.

WE SAY Buy into the boxy blazer look – it's edgy with shorts, slick with skinny pants or preppy with jeans. Kim's got the legs to go for shorts. It's how you wear them that counts: always with opaque tights and chunky heels.

HIGH-STREET TARGET Try Zara and Mango for looks at sensible prices that capture the quirky finish Kim loves. Their sales rails are always well worth a second glance too.
